

I believe that Morse Code should be required to operate HF. I also believe that repeated tests at a test secession should not continue.